Speaker: Sarah Moreland

In 2011, Sarah was awarded an MBE Queens Birthday Honours for her services to Further Education. In the same year, she won a Hertfordshire Sports Award for her services to disability sport.

Sarah's career in FE spans some 10 years, initially starting out as a teacher working with learners with learning difficulties, then as a Senior Advanced Practitioner, and was recently appointed Head of Business & ICT at Oaklands College.

Prior to teaching, Sarah worked in the equestrian industry. She spent 6 years in Saudi Arabia before returning to the UK, joined the GB Specialist Olympics coaching team in 2007 and in 2011 was chosen as Great Britain's Equestrian Coach for the Special Olympics World Games in Athens. Sarah established the Oaklands College RDA Group in 2008 and has run the very successful annual regional finals at Oaklands College. For the last two years her riders have got through to the national championships winning a range of medals under her guidance.

Sarah is a highly successful teacher, having gained 6 consecutive grade one lesson observations in recent years. A significant part of her current role is supporting teachers to become outstanding.
